Answered: 17 Skipped: 5

The staff at the colin surestart have been amazing support to myself and son he has became so much more confident with other children his age. He has been referred for speech therapy through surestart which I might not have noticed as much if the surestart team did which I'm grateful for. I would highly recommend surestart to anyone with small children the staff are amazing. My daughter has thoroughly enjoyed her year in the program she has learnt so much and has helped prepare her for nursery school she has formed a fantastic bond with the staff and loves going each day seeing her friends and learning i can not thank jane shannon and sinead for all they have done we will both miss them thank you for a lovely year I am so happy that my daughter got a place in the programme she really enjoyed her time there.
